

GUIDELINES FOR AUTHORS

Studi e Saggi Linguistici welcomes submissions of the following types: articles, review articles, book reviews. Contributions should be in the Italian language, in the English language or in another European language widely spoken. Manuscripts should be submitted online by using the OJS system, or they should be sent to the Editors as e-mail attachments (address for correspondence: Prof. Giovanna Marotta, gmarotta@ling.unipi.it). In the last case, authors should submit both an anonymous PDF file and a WORD file containing complete author affiliation, address information, phone number and e-mail. All submissions should contain original material neither submitted nor published elsewhere.

In submitting their paper, Authors are required to conform entirely to the Studi e Saggi Linguistici Style Sheet.

Articles and review articles must include an anonymous abstract in English (15 lines or 1.000 characters, including spaces) and 3 or 4 key words reflecting the theoretical background and the content of the paper.

Submitted articles will be sent to two qualified reviewers for peer review, and will also be approved by the Scientific Committee.

Authors whose contribution has been accepted for publication are required to send the final version of the manuscript by using OJS by dates determined by the system itself, and to the Editorial Assistants (Maria Napoli: maria.napoli@lett.unipmn.it or Francesco Rovai: f.rovai@virgilio.it) as an attachment (both WORD and PDF format). All fonts used must be True Type. Authors should be prepared to provide their special fonts by sending them to the Editorial Office (Maria Colombini, maria@edizioniets.com).

Authors will receive PDF page proofs for correction, which must be returned by dates determined by the publication schedule.
