

Studi e Saggi Linguistici Style Sheet

Authors interested in submitting a contribution to Studi e Saggi Linguistici must format their papers in strict agreement with the Style Sheet below. Following acceptance for publication, final manuscripts must be submitted through OJS in compliance with the specified time-frame, or as an email attachment to the Editorial Assistants (Dr. Maria Napoli: maria.napoli@lett.unipmn.it or Dr. Francesco Rovai: f.rovai@virgilio.it). The manuscript must be submitted in MS Word and a corresponding PDF file.

1. Author(s) information

At the end of the paper, and before the References, Author's name, affiliation (Faculty, University, and address), and email must be indicated. This information will be used for correspondence with the Editorial Assistants.

2. Sections and Footnotes

The paper should be divided in sections and, in case, subsections. Section numbering begins with the Introduction (if present, it must be labelled '1', not '0'). Section headings must be italicized. Footnotes (not endnotes) must be used.

3. Fonts

The True Type font is required by the Publisher. If special and/or unusual fonts are used, they must be sent as a PDF file to Publisher's Editorial Office (Mrs. Maria Colombini; email: maria@edizioniets.com).

4. Style

Words to be highlighted may be italicized, or included in single quotation marks ('...'). Double quotation marks ("...") must be used for translations. Bold and underlined should be avoided: the former makes reading heavy, and the latter can be easily replaced by italics. This convention does not apply to special cases, where possible departures are made explicit and justified.

5. Quotations

Quotations must conform the following format: author's name, year of publication, and number of page(s). Thus, the format is unified for both books and journal articles.

Examples:

- Reference to a single contribution: Rossi (1996); Rossi and Verdi (1952); Rossi et al. (1999); Rossi (1995, ed.); Rossi et al. (1999, eds.).
- Reference to a single translated contribution: Weber (1921; It. transl. 1968).
- Reference to a contribution with the indication of page number: Rossi (1996: 14); Weber (1921: 145); Weber (1921; It. transl. 1968: 145).
- Reference to the author's name between brackets, within the main text, in footnotes, or at the end of a quotation: (Rossi, 1996: 14; Alinei, 1980: 8). Please, note the use of the comma after the author's name.
- If different contributions by the same author show the same year of publication, the year must be followed by a letter, in order to clearly identify the different contributions: Rossi (1993a: 14); Rossi (1993b: 35).
- The names of two different authors must be joint by the conjunction 'and' (not '-' or '&').

Quotations within the main text or footnotes must be included between guillemets (also known as French quotation marks: « »). Long quotations should be set out as a separate paragraph within the main text without any quotation marks. In this case, smaller font-size and margin indent must be used. Example:

In its novels, Akutagawa wrote as follows:

Egli riteneva che la cultura giapponese da cinquant'anni a questa parte materialmente avesse fatto grandi passi in avanti, ma che spiritualmente non avesse migliorato in alcun modo. Anzi, sotto un certo punto di vista, essa si è degradata (Akutagawa, 1950: 34).

If an author is quoted in footnotes, SMALL CAPS must be used for his/her name.

6. Linguistic data

Foreign language words must be italicized. Examples must be separated from the main body of the text, numbered, translated, and, possibly, glossed (in case, a list of the abbreviations used in glossed should be provided):

Hindi (Mohanani, 1990:104)

(1) a. Ilaa-ne bacce-ko (baccaa*) uTaayaa
Ila-ERG child-ACC (*child) ift.PERF
“Ila lifted a/the child”.

b. Ilaa-ne haar uTaayaa
Ila-ERG necklace lift.PERF
“Ila lifted a/the necklace”.

7. Figures and Tables

Figures and Tables must be numbered and labelled. Table legends must be underneath their respective Figure and/or Table, conforming to the following model:

Table 1. State verbs as a scalar category (Gaeta, 2002: 138)

8. Final references

Bibliographical references appear at the end of the paper, and must be alphabetically-ordered.

Different contributions of the same author must be chronologically-ordered: Rossi, E. (1992); Rossi, E. (1993a); Rossi, E. (1993b); Rossi and Carli (1999). Titles must be italicized. The Publisher appears before the place of publication. The names of both authors and editors must be in SMALL CAPS.
